

Head of Stage & Flys

About Sadler's Wells

Sadler's Wells is a world-leading creative organisation, dedicated to presenting, producing and touring dance made today in all its forms. Sadler's Wells commissions, presents and produces more dance than any other theatre in the world – from tango to hip hop, ballet to flamenco, Bollywood to cutting-edge contemporary dance. With an innovative, year-round programme of performances and learning activities, this is the place where artists come together to create dance, and where we welcome everyone to experience dance and be inspired.

Our aim is to reflect and respond to the world through dance: enabling artists of all backgrounds to create dance that moves us and opens our minds; sharing those experiences with the widest possible audiences to enrich their lives and deepen their understanding of what it means to be human.

Over half a million people come to our theatres in London each year, with many more enjoying our touring productions at partner venues across the UK and in cities around the world. Sadler's Wells Theatre has been located in Islington since the 17th century. Our modern day theatre comprises a main auditorium (1,500 seats); the Lilian Baylis Studio (180 seats); three rehearsal studios; bars, a café, facilities for private and corporate entertaining and offices for Sadler's Wells' staff.

Our second theatre building and West End home, the Peacock (1,000 seats), is subject to a unique agreement whereby Sadler's Wells and the London School of Economics jointly manage it, with the LSE presenting its lectures to students during the day and Sadler's Wells presenting theatre at night.

Future Plans

Plans are underway for the development of a fourth venue in east London's Queen Elizabeth Olympic Park. Sadler's Wells' new space will be located on the Stratford Waterfront site, opposite the London Aquatics Centre, alongside UAL's London College of Fashion and the V&A Museum. The site will form part of a new cultural and education district, which will also include a major new University College London (UCL) campus and have direct links to the creative communities already based in east London.

Sadler's Wells' new space will house a 550-seat mid-scale theatre, as well as facilities for a choreographic centre and a hip hop academy, all planned to open at the end of 2022.

The Role

The principle responsibility of the Head of Stage and Flys is to assist in the preparation and running of productions, ensuring that all relevant technical requirements are met in a safe and professional manner, and ensuring a high standard of operation at all times. - Liaise with visiting companies to ensure their requirements are met to the highest standards within the resources available
- Maintain a positive and proactive approach to the show and to visiting company requirements and requests
- Arrange hires and purchasing for shows, working accurately within show budgets, and keeping all documentation clear and up to date
- Effectively and accurately plan and prepare for incoming and house shows, including safe preparation for all rigging and flying issues
- Supervise all designated house and casual staff, setting expectations of high production standards and behaviour
- Be responsible for scheduling casual staff for Stage/Flys, ensuring expenditure on premium payments and overtime is closely controlled
- Be responsible for maintenance and storage issues concerning Stage/Flys, keeping the Technical Manager informed of issue and requirements
- Oversee a clean, efficient, well-organised and safe physical working environment, ensuring all areas are kept in a clean and tidy manner
- Collate annual checks for all 3 theatres including but not limited to requirements under LOLER and PUWER, and assets registers
- Oversee the ordering of stock as required
- Oversee the usage of all tools, equipment and machinery used by the Stage/Flys team

- Promote a positive approach to Health & Safety and safe working methods at all times, ensuring relevant Health & Safety legislation is applied effectively, critical maintenance schedules are adhered to, and appropriate risk assessments are carried out on a regular basis

Additional Responsibilities

- Assist in the preparation and running of productions, ensuring that all technical requirements are met in a safe and professional manner
- Assist in ensuring a high standard of technical operation at all times
- Foster good working relationships with members of the Technical Department and other Sadler's Wells Departments
- Provide training for other staff as required
- Carry out any duties as may be required by the Director of Technical and Production or Technical Manager
- Maximise income and minimise expenditure without loss of quality in all areas of responsibility
- Attend occasional staff meetings, training sessions and other events which may take place outside normal working hours
- At all times to carry out duties and responsibilities with regard to Sadler's Wells' Equality, Diversity and Inclusion, and Health and Safety Policies. This may include providing assistance with evacuation procedures or building searches in the event of an emergency at any of Sadler's Wells' premises
